Honorable Paul B. Dague
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dague:

Thank you for your letter of 4 November enclosing Form 57 from [redacted]

[redacted] filed an application with us in August which, after careful review, was returned to him with a letter explaining that we were appointing only a small number of new employees and did not have an opening commensurate with his qualifications. We shall be glad to reconsider his application in light of our current needs to determine whether any recent change might result in a suitable vacancy for him.
